

Sussex
Countryside
Trust
Standing up for your countryside

Sussex Spring Conference

FUTUREPROOFING

Good planning must leave us with a living countryside for Sussex, putting people and the environment at the heart of decision making. We must get the balance right. The real costs of getting it wrong will be borne by future generations as our dysfunctional legacy. Do we want this? Can we plan to avoid it?

Saturday 23rd March 9:30am – 2:00pm

Ropetackle Arts Centre
Little High St
Shoreham-by-Sea
West Sussex BN43 5EG

Agenda

9.30 Coffee

10.00 Welcome and Chair's introduction

10.10 Keynote speech
Nick Herbert, MP

10.45 The National Planning Policy Framework
one year on
Neil Sinden, CPRE Director of Policy and Campaign

11.15 Coffee Break

11.30 The great Sussex sustainable development debate
Georgia Wrighton, Director,
CPRE Sussex Countryside Trust

11.45 Getting the balance right locally:
The Horsham and Crawley experience
Dr Roger Smith, Trustee and District Chair

12.15 Q&A Panel

12.45 Lunch and networking

2.00 Close

Booking Form

Name/s

CPRE Membership number
(if applicable)

Group/Organisation

Title/Role

E-mail address

Mailing address

Postcode

Telephone

Lunch: number of people
NB Please note any special dietary requirements

Number of people attending at £12.00 each

Concessions at £6.00 each
(members, students, unemployed, low income)

I enclose my cheque, payable to CPRE Sussex, for £ Please send your booking form and payment to the CPRE Sussex office, Brownings Farm, Blackboys, East Sussex, TN22 5HG

Or book online at www.cpresussex.org.uk and follow the links

Please tick the box if you would prefer not to be contacted in future.

To find out more about the work of CPRE in securing the future of the Sussex countryside – or to join – please contact us via the website or directly at :

CPRE Sussex Countryside Trust

Brownings Farm

Blackboys

East Sussex TN22 5HG

Telephone: 01825 890975

e-mail: info@cpresussex.org.uk

www.cpresussex.org.uk

Registered Charity No 265028

Getting to Ropetackle

<http://www.ropetacklecentre.co.uk/visit/>

Train

Ropetackle is 10 minutes walk from Shoreham station.

Trains from Brighton and Worthing are frequent and there is a direct line from Victoria.

Car

Parking is available by the Adur Outdoor Centre just over the bridge.

Bus

The nearest bus stop is on the High Street and serves routes 2, 2a and 700.

Access

The building is accessible to wheelchair users and has accessible toilets. Please contact Ropetackle directly to discuss any specific requirements.